

A blue floor plan of a lounge area. The plan shows a long, narrow room with a central vertical corridor. At the top, there is a horizontal rectangular area, possibly a bar or a service counter. The walls are indicated by thick blue lines, and there are several rectangular shapes along the walls that could be tables or chairs. The text "Wozniak Lounge 430-8" is centered in the room. A scale bar labeled "1'" is located at the bottom center of the plan.
